Children's Classic Concerts' presenter and virtuoso percussionist Owen, has teamed up with award-winning Scottish songstress and fiddler, Seonaid Aitken – and her band Rose Room – for an interactive introduction to jazz that will have the whole family literally dancing in the aisles!

Enjoy sensational solos showing off the swingin' strings of the double bass, guitars and jazz fiddle; travel the world listening to high-energy numbers from France to Russia; experience tap dancing like never before; clap, sing, get in the groove and Mooch around with Minnie.

Join us for a workshop, before the concert, for a fantastic opportunity to meet and jam along with the pros. Get ready to create new music on the spot and channel those jazz vibes!

Recommended for ages 4 – 12, but enjoyed by all the family!

For over 20 years, CCC have been delighting children and their families with their unique, fun-filled introduction to live orchestra music. From the mind-blowing power of the Symphony orchestra in the concert hall to hands-on workshops in your local arts venue, our programmes are designed to entertain and inspire. Join our community online to hear more about our upcoming events.
